

To the Organisers and Participants of the 11th Moscow International Specialised Exhibition
PHARMTECH 2009

On behalf of the Federal Service for Supervision of Consumer Right Protection and Human Wellbeing, I welcome the organisers, participants and guests of the 11th Moscow International Specialised Exhibition “PHARMTECH 2009 – Technologies of Pharmaceutical Industry”.

Russian pharmaceutical industry is one of the most fast growing sectors in the Russian Federation.

PHARMTECH today is a professional display of achievements in the field of pharmaceutical industry providing an opportunity to pharmaceutical companies of Russia and CIS to move to a new qualitative level of medicine production in accordance with international standards.

It is a pleasure to mention specialised seminars organised within the exhibition providing leading scientists and specialists with an opportunity to discuss new development trends of the industry and exchange opinions.

The Federal Service for Supervision of Consumer Right Protection and Human Wellbeing supports the exhibition and is confident that the 11th exhibition “PHARMTECH 2009”, as well as the previous editions, will become one of the leading forums of Russian and international specialists in the field of development and production of medicines providing participants with an opportunity to exchange information, acquire new knowledge and introduce them in practice.

I wish every success to the exhibition, and I wish exhibitors and visitors productive meetings and fruitful work.
